Projects

I. Working Portfolio

Deployed Project: https://q118.github.io/shelby_rothman/portfolio.html

GitHub Repo: <https://github.com/Q118/geoquiz>

I was the project-coordinator for this group project; a full-stack MERN application that allows users to test their geographical knowledge by identifying countries on a map. This application utilizes React.js, Node, an Express Web Server, and is backed by a MongoDB database; allows for the authentication of users with a folder structure that meets MVC paradigm.

II. Marvel Match

Deployed Project: <https://q118.github.io/marvel-match/>

GitHub Repo: <https://github.com/Q118/marvel-match>

An application where a user selects input search criteria from radio-button menus. The application compares those user-inputs to data from a Marvel database and provides a match.
